Dear Parents

Parents' Discussion Evenings

Mindful that we are working in partnership with parents in the care of our students, we would like to arrange events for parents with the aim to creating a forum for discussion about varying topics of importance to those with teenage daughters.

These would take place in the evenings and generally start with a presentation, followed by discussion and the opportunity to ask questions. Sometimes the topics would be more relevant for parents of either younger or older girls but parents would be welcome to attend any session.

Sessions may include 'Raising girls: perfectionism and self-esteem', 'Teenage parties: how to successfully manage them' and 'Helping at home with effective preparation for examinations'.

As part of the planning process I am writing to ask in which areas you would like to receive support in order to help your daughter to maintain healthy wellbeing. We will then endeavour to construct a programme which will address these areas.

In the meantime, if you have any concerns about your daughter's wellbeing please do not hesitate to contact her tutor, Head of Key Stage or myself.

Head of Key Stage 3, Mr E. Palfreyman, e.palfreyman@jcg.sch.je

Head of Key Stage 4, Miss N. Hopkins, n.hopkins@jcg.sch.je

Head of Sixth Form, Mrs Spiteri, l.spiteri@jcg.sch.je

Yours faithfully
